Havdallah at the Beach
Saturday, August 6
Phillips Beach, Swampscott
Bring your picnic supper and/or dessert, and welcome the new week with Rabbi B and Cantor Elana and more...
I could not help but to think of these words on our first Sunday here, as I sat with Raphael on the rocky area on Atlantic Avenue where Swampscott meets Marblehead. We were sitting on the rocks at high tide looking down at what earlier in the day was a spacious beach; at high tide, all I could see was crystal blue water crashing against the rocky wall. It was a moment of such peace and calm that we will never forget.

I would like to begin by saying, “thank you.” In the short time since Raphael and I moved here from New York, we have been welcomed by Rabbi B, by CSH’s amazing staff and lay leadership, and by its membership. Words cannot express how grateful we are to each person (you know who you are!) who has helped us in this transition. The only phrase that comes to mind as I experience the kindness of this community is “Radical Hospitality.” I can attest to the fact that this kehilah kedosha (sacred community) practices what it preaches; I cannot wait to be a part of it.

I chose CSH originally because it has so clearly accomplished what many shuls are only beginning to dream of: it has made “going to shul” an exciting, engaging community event; it has fostered a community of people seeking spiritual closeness; and it has done so while still engaging with Jewish tradition and liturgy. During my visit, the Renewal Minyan was particularly inspiring to me because it connected my personal spirituality to traditional Hebrew liturgy, allowing me to meditate on short phrases, no more than three words at a time. Despite my own proficiency and love for the Hebrew language and Jewish liturgy, sometimes I can only handle three words at a time. CSH appears to be a community that understands people and their spiritual process. It is a community whose priority is to grow both collectively and individually through the power of prayer.

Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel, one of the leading Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century, said, “Prayer is meaningless unless it is subversive, unless it seeks to overthrow and to ruin the pyramids of callousness, hatred, opportunism and falsehood. The liturgical movement must become a revolutionary movement, seeking to overthrow the forces that continue to destroy the promise, the hope, the vision.” Throughout the year, I will be offering opportunities for adults and children to learn and expand their connection to Jewish prayer. I would like to make you aware of two excellent learning opportunities during the High Holy Day season this year. Consider them “warm-ups” to prepare us musically and emotionally for the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services. On Wednesday, September 14, I will be teaching a class on melodies of the High Holy Days. We will sing both traditional melodies that many of us have grown up singing, as well as some contemporary melodies that I will introduce. We will also explore the texts in order to understand how the music helps to convey the emotional content of each tefillah (prayer). The second “warm-up” is our S’lichot service on Saturday night, September 24. This service is typically held on the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah. The S’lichot service is our first “glimpse” of the High Holy Day tefillot, as it begins to prepare us for the penitential season. The evening will include: a lesson that will help us connect to the prayers of the season, light refreshments, and a moving S’lichot service.

I look forward to meeting all of you and getting to know you, as I share with you my passion for and understanding of Jewish tefillah and music. When we can authentically connect to Jewish prayer, when we know it so well that it becomes our prayer, then we can become Heschel’s soldiers in our effort to further the goals that have already made CSH our innovative, exciting, constantly growing spiritual home.

B’Shalom,
Cantor Elana
Did You Know?

There are laws, there are rules, there are traditions and then there is etiquette. In our B’not Mitzvah class we began a discussion on some of these areas. One area that we may not ever think about pertains to the Torah.

When we think of the Torah we relate to respect. The ark is open, the congregation rises. When the Torah is carried around the sanctuary the congregation stands. That is how we show respect to the Torah. There is one area that we may miss. As the Torah is carried around the sanctuary we are still obliged to continue our respect by approaching it instead of expecting the Torah to seek out each congregant. Should one find him- or herself beyond the reach of the Torah the “little finger” approach is correct. (See me for an explanation)

Alright, you get an Aliyah and now, following proper etiquette:
1. Approach the Torah by the “shortest” path with a head covering (man or woman)
2. Position yourself to the “right” of the Torah reader, wait for him/her to point to the place in the Torah to be read, then you kiss that spot with either a tallit or another object available
3. Place your hands on either side of the Etz Hayim (bottom handles of the Torah) and then begin the Blessing Before the Torah.
4. Following the reading, kiss the spot the reader completed and begin the Blessing After the Torah
5. Remain at the reader’s table to the “right” of the Torah reader until the next person completes the Aliyah.

Following the Torah reading we have a tradition known today as birkat hahodesh, “the blessing of the new moon,” and is widely observed in synagogues throughout the world. On the last Shabbat of the Hebrew month, the cantor stands with the Torah scroll in his arms, and announces the day(s) of the coming week on which the New Moon, Rosh Hodesh, will fall. The announcement is preceded and followed by particularly melodious prayers for a blessed month.

This ritual is a post-Talmudic custom with little halakhic [Jewish law] significance. Its purpose is to make sure that those members of the congregation who attended synagogue services on Shabbat only would know when this minor festival falls, especially for the women of the house.

Enjoy the rest of your summer!

Cantor Emil

Andy Caplan and Melissa Kaplowitch, Board Co-chairs

After serving on the synagogue’s board of directors for the past five years, we are pleased to be a part of a new contemporary governance structure for our lay leaders that will create a more reasonable template for active volunteers. Having seen burnout and frustration from volunteers, we are excited to announce the concept of board co-chairs and committee chairs, rather than a traditional role of a single president. We believe that as board co-chairs, we will be better able to serve the needs of the congregation by making leadership more manageable. We have charged our extraordinary executive committee team with taking a more active role in board management and oversight:

- Tom Levenberg is chairing our Congregational Home and Building Committee. Tom has been an exceptional leader, taking on the task of transforming our building into a beautiful place of worship.
- Bob Alperin is taking over our Finance Committee and has formed a team of leaders to take charge of our budget and financial operations.
- Howie Abrams joins us as our chair of the Education Committee. He brings numerous years of board and community involvement to our team.
- Susan Goldberg will chair our Spirituality Committee. Her warmth and enthusiasm is both inviting and exciting.
- Paul Gregory is hard at work leading our Business to Business (B2B) and Lev Fundraising Initiative.
- Joe Selby brings his enthusiasm for CSH and creative new ideas to his dual roles as chair of the Membership Committee and Board Secretary.

Each of these members of the executive committee will take the lead in addressing issues with their areas of responsibility. Please seek them out, offer to become involved and join the cause that moves you! The eight of us have been hard at work thinking about innovative opportunities for revenue, membership, religious and spiritual life, and overall programming.

We have already implemented some other exciting changes. As you may have noticed, we have removed the reserved parking spots from the front of the building. Subscribing to the CSH motto of “radical hospitality” (and forfeiting the one perk of our positions, a cushy parking spot), we invite our members to utilize these prime parking spots.

Next, we have created a rotating schedule of lead Shabbat Gabbaiim. To allow our congregants to get to know all of our Executive Committee members, rather than just the co-chairs, one of the Executive Committee members will be representing the board on any given Shabbat. We look forward to getting to know each other.

Finally, we have been working side-by-side with our Preschool Director Leslie Rooks Sack to expand our preschool hours. At the request of Play to Learn Preschool, a local school that is closing its doors at the end of August, we have been asked to invite their families into our family. Many of these families were left without any preschool or childcare options. In order to accommodate these families, as well as some of our current preschool and congregational families, we will now be open year-round with expanded hours from 7:30 a.m. to 6:00 pm. We are also opening a new infant care room. We look forward to discussing more exciting changes in the months to come.

Enjoy the rest of the summer!
Melissa and Andy
In order to accommodate local families whose preschool will abruptly go out of business at the end of August, Congregation Shirat Hayam Preschool has expanded its hours of operation to offer full-day child care from 7:30 am to 6:00 pm year-round. The CSH Preschool also is opening an infant room that will care for infants beginning at three months of age.

Shirat Hayam is expanding its widely-acclaimed Preschool program at the request of Lisa King, Owner/Director of “Play to Learn” Preschool in Swampscott, who recently lost her lease and was forced to close her program suddenly. “While I am saddened to close my program, I am very appreciative that the Shirat Hayam Preschool has welcomed my families with open arms,” says Ms. King. “Shirat Hayam Preschool Director Leslie Sack and her staff have gone above and beyond the call of duty in expanding their program to meet the needs of my families, and to make sure they have a local, reputable preschool option.”

Lisa and I, along with staff from both schools recently held a joint meeting for parents from Play to Learn so that parents could ask questions and tour the Shirat Hayam Preschool facility. A number of families have already registered for September. Applications for the 2011-2012 program are available at the Preschool Office.

The expansion of our Preschool is a win-win for Play to Learn families as well as members of our congregation, our Preschool families and the community-at-large. In addition to continuing our quality Preschool, we are now able to offer a quality day care option with extended care hours and infant care to those who have such a need.

About Congregation Shirat Hayam Preschool
When the Preschool first opened its doors to the community in 1975, it had an enrollment of 30 children. Today there are over 100 families, yet the Preschool continues to have the small family feel that it had those many years ago. The Preschool continues the tradition of diversity by introducing children of all faiths to school life. A feeling of connection is so important to young children, and at Shirat Hayam connection is infused throughout the building. The Preschool and the Congregation are a place for children and families to develop, connect, and feel at home.

There are limited openings for the fall in the CSH Preschool. For more information, please contact me at: 781.598.3311 or leslie@shirathayam.org.

Enjoy the rest of your summer!

L’Hitraot,
Jed
It’s great that the summer slows down at Shirat Hayam.

This has been a great summer so far. Cantor Elana is on board, the Bulletin deadline and High Holy Day program book looms, the Chuck Sagan Memorial Golf Classic is about to happen, committees are busy planning for the fall, preparation for the High Holy Days is well underway, the Israel trip leaves in just a few weeks’ time, students are registering for Preschool and CJ E, members paying their dues and ordering their High Holy Day tickets, and... did someone say it slows down here?

Personally, I had a wonderful staycation. Took a week off in July (funny, no one did my work while I was gone) and enjoyed having my 2 daughters and my husband home at the same time. We went to museums, sailing, the beach and out to eat - a lot. I look forward to the Shirat Hayam trip to Israel on August 21. We have a great group going with four b’nai mitzvah! I’ll be working on this trip to ensure the group has a magnificent time. I don’t really think of going to Israel as going away. It’s more like coming home. Every time I board the plane in Tel Aviv for the return flight, I’m thinking about when I will be back. It never comes soon enough. Perhaps you’ll join us next time we go?

We’re discussing possibilities for Shirat Hayam travel. If you are interested in a trip to Eastern Europe next year, please let me know. If there is enough interest, we will begin to plan the trip! As far as Israel is concerned, we’ll likely go again in two years, if not sooner. We’re also talking about a possible trip to the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia. Watch future Bulletins and emails for information!

Enjoy the rest of your summer. Have safe travels. Consider traveling with your CSH family in the coming year or two.

Please don’t hesitate to contact me with questions or ideas.

L’hitraot,
Marla

Chesed Committee

Karynn Needel and Beth Hoffman, Co-chairs

The Chesed Committee has been very busy providing meals, rides, visits and general emotional support to the congregation, as needed. The committee’s mission is to help congregants and their families in times of crisis. They are the first responders, there to do triage until other “sources” are notified and become available.

If you want to become a part of this GREAT committee, please let us know. There is a little something for everyone to do within the Chesed Committee!

Please contact us if you know of someone in need. We can only help those that we know about. Thank you!

Benny Friedman: The Rise and Fall of Brandeis Football

The short-lived Brandeis football program was implemented to create the ethos of a university that was Jewish supported yet American. Football great Benny Friedman served as the first coach and athletic director. The dynamic Friedman built an impressive football program, considering his dependence on scholar-athletes. The program’s success proved to be its ultimate downfall due to some who feared that the continued growth of athletics would threaten the academic atmosphere.

ALTERNATIVE SERVICE INFORMATION FOR AUGUST

Early Mystic Minyan 8:30 am
As it says in the Mishnah, the early mystics would gather together and sit for an hour before even attempting to formally engage in prayer. So too at CSH we offer the Early Mystic Minyan as an option for practitioners of meditation to come and sit as we begin to open up the space of our Chapel on Shabbat and of our hearts in the early quiet hours before the crowds arrive. There will be minimal, if any, instruction for the first fifteen minutes. It is a time to gather one’s self and one’s thoughts together through individual prayer without words.

Renewal Minyan - 8:45 - 9:50 am
The Renewal Minyan is an attempted synthesis of keva - the traditional structure of tefilah (Jewish prayers) with kavanah - spiritual depth within the prayer itself. During the Renewal Minyan we are committed to traversing the Shabbat morning tefilot structure (Birkot HaShachar, P’suikéi D’Zimrah, Shachrit), but not necessarily davening (praying) each and every prayer along the way. Our aim, again, is to strike a balance between breadth and depth, and within a one hour period that is a fine balance, to be sure.
August renewal: August 6 and 13 will be led by Rabbi HaLevi and August 20 and 27 will be led by a guest to be announced.

Torah Yoga 10:00 am
A full-body Shabbat experience. Torah yoga incorporates yoga practice with a Shabbat theme.

Nosh and Drash - 10:00 am
Grab a cup of coffee and nosh at the Boker Tov Café, and join the guest rabbi or scholar for a Torah-based Shabbat learning experience.

Limud Shabbat with Tzofim returns on September 10!
Don’t forget to send in your CJE registration in advance.

Nosh & Drash
Pick up your “Nosh” in the CSH Atrium and enjoy a Torah study session on the stage at 10:00 am with the following guest scholars for August:
6 - Rabbi Ken Weiss; 13 - Dr. Harvey Zarren; 20 - Rabbi Ken Weiss; 27 - Rabbi Howard Kosovske

Please note: On August 20 and 27, Rabbis Weiss and Kosovske, respectively, will deliver the d’var Torah in Rabbi B’s absence.
