Yom Ha’Atzmaut

I've shared it before. I'll share it again. I am a Zionist; an unabashed Zionist. I spoke about it a couple of times last month, after having just returned from the AIPAC Policy Conference in Washington, D.C. I'll speak about it again these High Holy Days. I have to because Eretz Yisrael - the Modern State of Israel, is a miracle.

What I want to continue to focus on in this conversation about Israel is a new story which has been percolating for a few years now. Yes, we need to talk about the Matzav - all of the threats which Israel is facing, and I'm certain we will. However, we also need to talk about the innovation and inspiration which abounds in the public and private sectors within the government and start-up companies, and all across Israel.

From the "Iron Dome" and "David's Sling" missile defense systems to Hebrew University's sensory replacement technology which has given sight to the blind; from "Innovate Africa" which has created solar power wells for Africans to "Mobile Eye" which is a bionic eye that can recognize everything around you while driving, to help you avoid crashes; from "Robo Team" and next generation bomb disposal robots to "Circ-MedTech" which, I kid you not, has created a bloodless, surgery free, $25 outpatient adult circumcision kit - Israel is not only a center of ingenuity - Israel is literally on the cutting edge (so to speak) doing Tikun Olam one idea and start-up at a time.

So here's what I ask of you.

1. Do some homework and send me more amazing Israel start-ups and groundbreaking companies and ideas. (By the way it's great homework for your children and grandchildren. They really think it is fun and cool, and a great way to teach the new face of Zionism.)

2. Join us for our Yom Ha'atzmaut - Israel Independence Day celebration on April 11 and stand with Israel, show your solidarity and wear your Zionism on your sleeve.

Am Yisrael Chai

YOM HA’ATZMAUT

CELEBRATE ISRAEL’S 65TH

THURSDAY, APRIL 11

SEE PAGE 8
In the past, we discussed many areas of rituals of the synagogue and some Jewish symbols. I would, now, like to touch on probably the most obvious in a synagogue service. I am referring to synagogue music. I, personally, cannot imagine having a service without music. It is like Laurel & Hardy or Martin & Lewis or Bagels & Lox. You know what I mean. They just belong together. I remember as a child that while singing in synagogue choirs we were introduced to cantorial compositions that remained with me for some six decades. Today in a modern congregation we would call that “old music”. I suppose some would also say opera is also “old music”. To me they are both “classical music”. As synagogues and communities change, so does the music that becomes part of the “new”. It must change because people change. Reb Shlomo Carlebach, of blessed memory, was the pioneer of the “new”, followed very closely by Debbie Friedman, of blessed memory. These two giants showed the Jewish world that there are so many ways to express yourself in a prayer. Not that it has never been done before them, but they did bring it front and center in our more modern and up-to-date services. Classical cantorial, as well as opera, are very much alive today but not in our modern synagogue. They are found in concert halls and opera houses. Today, we have an endless number of composers who create synagogue music - myself included. Those who attend our Musical Kabbalat Shabbat service hear the works of the above mentioned almost exclusively. Are we better off with this new approach? Well, it is more simplified and certainly much more participatory by the congregation. Of course, if one does not attend too often it really does not make a difference, does it? I do know one thing. Synagogue services and the entire ambiance become a “comfort zone” for those who attend fairly regularly. So, to anyone who has not been to our Musical Kabbalat Shabbat service, stop in. It is a wonderful way to begin Shabbat.

L'Shalom,
Cantor Emil

Announcing...

Ariel Peretz Rozenfeld son of Cantor Elana and Raphael Rozenfeld
Born March 8, 2013
Robert A. Krentzman, Chief Executive Officer

Why CEO, not Executive Director?

From the moment I saw the job posting for a CEO position at Congregation Shirat Hayam and then later met with the CEO Search Committee, I knew that the expectations and job description would be much different than your average, run of the mill synagogue. I guess that was the first time I realized that CSH was NOT an average, run of the mill synagogue!!

I was told that bringing in recurring revenue, by means of my entrepreneurial background and spirit, was a strong portion of my job and performance evaluation. This revenue would be used to subsidize our current budget shortfall and balance our budget by means other than the traditional fundraising solicitations that tax our congregation.

That same first day of meetings is when I met Rabbi B and we discussed the “No pay to pray” concept/model of membership, which obviously is a huge and calculated undertaking, but relative to our ultimate mission..."Believe, Achieve, Succeed!!"

While envisioning different entrepreneurial scenarios, we also want to make sure they are consistent with the CSH culture and model. How can we use our facility, our community and still stay true to our Jewish principles?

There has been so much transformation on the site of 55 Atlantic Avenue, both physical and cultural.

We have a beautiful, well-designed sanctuary/social hall that has served as the focal point of amazing religious, spiritual and motivational sermons, prayers, music, dialogue and dining. The ingenious designs and implementation of equipment at CSH has allowed us to share the experiences within its walls with outside appreciative observers... nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and others that watch our Shabbat Synaplex™ on our Shulcasting Program. Family members that are unable to attend a simcha in person can be “with” their family via our website. How wonderful would it be for your family in Maryland to be with you and yours at our 2nd Night Seder, our High Holy Day Services, or your children’s B’nai Mitzvah? You get the point!! With upgrades and advances to the Shulcasting system, this becomes a “value-added service” that we can offer families looking for a Facility/Event Center to hold their event. This will include not just watching the live pictures and video streaming from all your Lifecycle events, but we could also offer the creation of a Photo/ Video Montage of the “live” event for you to have for generations to enjoy!!

CSH once again showed its ability to think “outside the box” when we decided to offer you our Electronic Yahrzeit 201 Board. As part of our “Legacy Project”, CSH will offer multiple alternatives to create a “Legacy Video” of you to be stored on the Yahrzeit 201 Board. How amazing would it be for your grandchildren and their children to come to CSH 25 years from now, in remembrance of your Yahrzeit, and watch Nana and Grandpa, or Bubbe and Zayde, and get to know the people, not just the names? More to come on all this...!!

We want to offer Catering Services for your lifecycle events and programs. There was a day here recently when we had a Bris and Kiddush in the chapel and a funeral in our sanctuary. Transforming our social hall into a venue for all sorts of community events and programming, our facility can work with crowds as small as 10 or as large as 1100.

We are also beginning to discuss the concept of bringing a “Coffee House” for both Jewish and secular music and artists to the North Shore at CSH. Not only will this be a great night for our members, but it will also bring others throughout our community into our home. Once Cantor Elana is back from the birth of Ariel Peretz Rozenfeld, we will begin working on the best way to do this.

We have engaged with Be Driven Transportation (North Shore Shuttle) and BostonShuttle.com for them to park cars whose drivers will be taken into Boston by one of their vehicles. Our parking area and their vehicles will make for a convenient way to battle the traffic...a great opportunity for all those on the North Shore.

As another part of our Life Cycle Planning program, we will be offering Estate Planning, Living/Ethical Will Preparation and Funeral Planning, including our beautiful, exceptionally maintained cemetery.

Three years ago, Congregation Shirat Hayam transformed the traditional synagogue annual campaign model by switching from the longtime High Holy Day appeal to the Lev Initiative. LEV is our annual campaign that asks congregants and corporate sponsors to give from the heart (“LEV” means heart in Hebrew) by supporting the program at CSH about which you feel most passionate. Instead of directing philanthropy to our general operations, LEV gives congregants the opportunity to express their support for that aspect of CSH that lends special meaning to their lives.

Congregants and corporate sponsors have reacted enthusiastically to LEV. In LEV’s first year, donations totaled $100,000. This past year, LEV donations increased to $172,000. Congregants and corporate sponsors pledged financial support for our offerings, including Synaplex, Shabbat Café Lunch, yoga minyan, technology, CJE Hebrew School, musical programming…and more.

In order that we may continue and improve our offerings, this year’s LEV target is $225,000. To date, we have raised $136,000. We are making a big push to raise $90,000 in the final 45-days of the campaign (our fiscal year ends at the end of April). If you have already donated to LEV, thank you.

If you have not yet made a pledge to LEV, please make a meaningful donation. It’s easy. Donations can be made on the website at www.shirathayam.org/lev or by calling the office at 781-599-8005.

Thank you for your support.

Leslie Rooks Sack, Preschool Director

This is an especially exciting month in our Preschool, as we embark with CJE and Cohen Hillel Academy’s Tzofim class in creating a community vegetable garden right in our own backyard! The Gan (Garden) at Shirat Hayam has been created by co-chairs Jill Goodman and Ariela HaLevi as a way to teach children about tikkun olam (taking care of our earth), and having the children experience the wonderful life cycle of seeds - from planting, nourishing and harvesting the growth, and then to enjoy eating all the wonderful vegetables! The goal is to have the vegetables be part of our Shabbat Kiddish Luncheons and, hopefully, to have such an abundance that we can donate to My Brother’s Table in Lynn. What a great way for Toddler-to-Sages, which includes everyone, to benefit from The Gan at Shirat Hayam. There is still lots of planning to do, and your input and time is very welcomed, so please contact gan@shirathayam and join us!

Summerething Camp at our Preschool is open for registration, offering lots of options from 7:30 am - 6:00 pm, ages 3 months - 5 years old. Of course, all campers will become “expert” gardeners, as they join in tending to The Gan at Shirat Hayam!

Please email Leslie Sack, Preschool Director, at Leslie@ShiratHayam.org or call 781-598-3311 for camp information.

Shalom Chaverim:

As I write this, I am trying to concentrate on Pesach, even though in reality, the fact that my son is becoming a Bar Mitzvah in less than two weeks seems overwhelming. So forgive me if I vacillate a bit between topics.

The Pesach seder is full of “fours.” Four questions (well, one question and four answers), four cups of wine (+ Myriam’s cup), and the four children are a few examples. The repetition of the number four comes from Exodus chapter 6, verses 6 and 7:

"I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments, and I will take you to Me for a people, and I will be to you a God…"

God makes us four promises, to bring us out, deliver us, redeem us, and take us as a people. In some ways this is another iteration of the brit, or covenant between God and the Jewish people. Abraham makes the first brit, in Lech Lecha (Genesis 12:1) when God tells Abram (he’s not Abraham quite yet) to go to the place that God will show him, and God will make Abram’s name great and bless those that bless him while cursing those that curse him.

Our brit (or covenant/holy contract) with God is renewed a number of times in the Torah. While the spirit of the covenant remains the same, God will be our God and we will be God’s people, the details or responsibilities of each party in the relationship change. The rules for being God’s people get more and more complex as the mitzvot (commandments) are revealed to us, and at various times God is more specific about the kinds of protection and benefits offered, ranging from protection from various enemies to plentiful crops.

So why does the brit keep changing? We have a copy of the original – and all the renewals. This is where the Pesach/Bar Mitzvah crossover happens… and as I think about the simcha, the answer suddenly seems clear: our relationships with our children constantly change as they grow and their needs change. In the same way, our relationship with God changes too.

As infants, our children need food, shelter, clean clothes and sleep (although some of them need way less sleep than we adults do). We keep them safe and healthy. As they grow we teach them all sorts of new things, and they teach us just as much. Our relationships with our children have to change, because their needs change.

I am not wise enough to begin to consider whether God has needs, let alone that those may change, but I certainly know that our lives are always changing, as are our needs. The brit between God and the Jewish people changed in the Torah as our needs as a people changed. Sometimes we needed to be kept safe, other times we needed to be delivered from hardship, and even other times, we needed communal structure.

I am always amazed at how Judaism emphasizes practical life, as well as a spiritual life and the recognition that these two areas cross over each other all the time. During our lives, we change significantly in both of those areas, and our relationship with God has to change to reflect this.

I look forward to sharing our simcha with our CSH family, as we continue to grow and change together.

L’Shalom.

Ma Nishmah? What’s Happening?

There are 2 major things happening during the next 30 days that I hope you’ll participate in. The first is Yom Ha’Atzmaut. On Thursday, April 11, the entire community will be coming together to celebrate Israel’s 65th birthday. Professor David Passig is coming in from Israel to speak, Kappy’s is providing a tasting of fine Israeli wines and there will be a sampling of authentic middle eastern cuisine. The food and wine at the 7:00 pm reception will be amazing. Professor Passig will be speaking at 8:00 pm on Israel’s mega trends in the 21st century. It will be an amazing evening of solidarity - it’s FREE and open to the entire community. Please don’t miss it!!

May 4th is the CSH Synaplex open house. Invite people to join you on Shabbat and experience the incredible sense of community that happens here each week. Any Shirat Hayam member who brings a new family that joins will receive a free High Holy Day ticket! Also on May 4th at lunch, we have guest speakers from the Lone Soldier project. It’s a day that you’ll be glad you attended!

On another note, Rosh Hashanah begins on Wednesday night, September 4th. Please help us by responding to your mailing which will be in your home the first week of May. Most of us (myself included) tend to wait for the summer to end before we start thinking about the High Holy Days. Please, take care of your dues and tickets and book of life donations BEFORE the summer starts this year. Make “not procrastinating” your Jewish New Year’s resolution!!

We have a wonderful year planned. I look forward to sharing it with you and many new CSH members as well.

And finally, we are planning a major fundraising event in November…our Casino Night Out…watch for details coming soon. And certainly our main vehicle for raising funds to help continue the level of programs, events and services you have come to expect at CSH…our LEV Initiative will continue to be our focal point for reaching out to you as an individual or family to support from your heart, what is most dear to you at CSH.

As Executive Director, my charge is to work with our staff to increase efficiencies, productivity and strong/calculated use of cash. I have spent my first year focusing on this.

It is now time for me to transition to CEO…to run the shul, but to financially sustain it and advance it towards the future.

Together we can…together we will.

Our students are busy growing seeds indoors, Brotherhood is working on the raised garden beds, many have volunteered. Spring is here so let’s get together:

Jewish gardening is a wonderful way to be outside in nature, and connect to the elements. It is also a wonderful way to invigorate our neshomot, our souls: to bring together food from the land, teach others, and join together in truly a holy moment. We hope that, if you feel inspired, you will consider helping us build our community through Jewish gardening.

Early Mystic Minyan - 8:30 am

As it says in the Mishnah, the early mystics would gather together and sit for an hour before even attempting to formally engage in prayer. So too at CSH we offer the Early Mystic Minyan as an option for practitioners of meditation to come and sit as we begin to open up the space of our Sanctuary on Shabbat and of our hearts in the early quiet hours before the crowds arrive. There will be minimal, if any, instruction for the first fifteen minutes. It is a time to gather one’s self and one’s thoughts together through individual prayer without words.

Renewal Minyan - 8:45 - 9:50 am

The Renewal Minyan is an attempted synthesis of keva – the traditional structure of tefillah (Jewish prayers) with kavanah – spiritual depth within the prayer itself. During the Renewal Minyan we are committed to traversing the Shabbat morning tefillot structure (Birkot HaShachar, P’sukei D’Zimrah, Shachrit), but not necessarily davening (praying) each and every prayer along the way. Our aim, again, is to strike a balance between breadth and depth, and within a one hour period that is a fine balance, to be sure.

Living Minyan: Traditional Prayers and Learning - 9:00 am

The great thing about being Jewish is to be part of a tradition that is thousands of years old! But if you can’t read Hebrew, don’t know the words, or maybe can’t carry a tune, tradition can feel a little daunting. Would you like to learn more about the traditional morning service that greets the day on Shabbat? Come join Cantor Emil and friends in a safe, welcoming space to discover the beauty of traditional Jewish liturgy, prayer, and song in a user-friendly format. You can build your knowledge and self-confidence, and impress your bubbe or grandchild. Everyone’s invited, including the tone-deaf and non-Hebrew-readers!

Yoga Minyan - 10:00 am

A full-body Shabbat experience. Yoga Minyan incorporates yoga practice with a Shabbat theme.

Nosh and Drash - 10:00 am

Chesed Committee
Karynn Needel and Beth Hoffman, Co-chairs

The Chesed Committee has been very busy lending a hand by providing meals, rides, visits and general emotional support to the congregation, as needed. The committee’s mission is to help congregants and their families in times of crisis. They are the first responders, there to do triage until other “sources” are notified and become available.

If you want to become a part of this GREAT committee, please let us know. There is a little something for everyone to do within the Chesed Committee!

Please contact us if you know of someone in need. We can only help those that we know about.

Thank you!

Torah Readers: Diane Levin, Sophie Stern, Olivia Schauer, Aryeh Filler, Jed Filler, Murray Goodman, Natalie White

If you would like to read Torah or chant a Haftarah, contact Cantor Emil: CantorEmil@ShiratHayam.org.

CSH Minyannaires

Thank you to the following members for supporting daily services in March:

*denotes service leaders

We are very fortunate to have the above minyannaires attend when they can. However, please know that making a minyan twice a day is a challenge.

Please consider helping to make a minyan - once a week, once a month or whenever you can. Those needing a minyan to say kaddish would greatly appreciate it.
Thanks to the generosity of Karen and David Rosenberg, all proceeds from the purchase of “Revolution of Jewish Spirit” at Shirat Hayam will directly benefit the RUAKH at CSH!

Spirited Sisters: Circle at the Sea

Come celebrate the joy of Judaism, and the soul connection and support of our sister seekers. Together we will share in spiritual conversation and exploration. We will sing, dance, study, observe, play and share from the heart as we touch into mystical, magical, meaningful women’s experiences and deep gifts of our foremothers.

The Circle meets monthly and will be led by those of us who wish to share our gifts, talents and interests in this co-created gathering. You are invited to attend one or all. All women are welcome and no Hebrew is necessary.

On the following Sunday evenings - 7:00 to 9:00 pm at CSH:
April 7, May 5 and June 2

Albom, Mitch - The Timekeeper

"In Mitch Albom’s newest work of fiction, the inventor of the world’s first clock is punished for trying to measure God’s greatest gift. He is banished to a cave for centuries and forced to listen to the voices of all who come after him seeking more days, more years."

Palmer, Michael -- Political Suicide

"A massive cover-up gone awry. A prominent physician accused of murder. Uncovering the truth could put the country at risk."

Rich, Roberta -- Midwife of Venice

"A lavishly detailed (Elle Canada) debut that masterfully captures 16th century Venice against a dramatic and poetic tale of suspense."

Wouk, Herman -- The Lawgiver

"For more than 50 years, legendary author Herman Wouk has dreamed about writing a novel about the life of Moses. Finally, at age 97, he has found a witty way to tell the tale in The Lawgiver.... a remarkable twenty-first century work of fiction."

My Mitzvah Project

For my mitzvah project I am selling bake goods to help raise money to defray the cost of a Brain Tumor Walk around the Marblehead Neck that I am helping to organize. This walk will take place in November of 2013. This cause is very important to me because two of my grandparents died from a Brain Tumor. Also, one of my closest friends survived a Brain Tumor and I am so glad she is still here by my side. I want to help raise money for this cause so that more research can be done to find a cure for Brain Tumors. In order for the walk to be successful as possible and to raise as much money to find a cure, I need your help! So purchase your bake goods now!

Brainy Brownie Pie: $5.00 PER PIE
