The Pauses Between the Notes

Rabbi Sidney Greenberg shares the following story:

A great pianist was once asked by an ardent admirer, "How do you handle the notes as well as you do?" The artist answered, "The notes I handle no better than many pianists, but the pauses between the notes - ah! That is where the art resides."

In great living, as in great music, the art may be in the pauses. Surely, one of the enduring contributions which Judaism made to the art of living was Shabbat, "the pauses between the notes." And it is to the Shabbat that we must look if we are to restore to our lives the sense of serenity and sanctity which Shabbat offers in such joyous abundance.

Indeed, Shabbat offers us a weekly pause between the notes and, as you all know, at CSH we have mastered the art of both the Shabbat pause and the Shabbat notes.

But Shabbat is not enough of a pause. We also need larger chunks of time, larger pauses as life and life’s notes keep growing busier, more frequent and louder every year. Although we may not be able to take a Sabbatical as the Torah also suggests, maybe we can’t take the summer off, even if we can’t take more than a day now and again - we can create a pause here or there. We can experience the pause as we join together for some of our wonderful, contemplative Summer By The Sea offerings and outings. We can create a pause by breaking free from our usual reading routine and engaging in some summer reading, perhaps some Jewish reading. We can create a pause by setting down the books altogether and standing in the Amidah, or sitting in silence, at the seashore, a walk through the woods or at our newly created Gan Shirat Hayam - garden at CSH. Planting can be a pause; reading can be a pause; praying can be a pause; strolling can be a pause. There are no end to the possibilities of pauses - all that matters is we find some time to pause.

Now is the time on our calendar for a pause. As CSH winds down for the summer we’ll nonetheless continue to offer the pause of Shabbat. Join us here. Join us at the Summer by the Sea. But wherever, however, whenever you choose to pause, don’t forget to get your High Holy Day tickets, don’t forget to unpause this September as we return together, singing out loud and proud re-energized by the pause, and ready to create new music, new energy, new notes.

How Do We Count?

I have been asked many questions in my lifetime and, believe it or not, the majority of the questions have been synagogue oriented. The most recent one was, and not the first time, "why the number ‘10’ for a minyan". Firstly, we must understand that congregational worship is preferred to private devotion. This is because there are a number of key prayers that are not said without a minyan. At a public service Torah readings can also be heard. So, what constitutes a congregation? The answer in a minyan, a minimum of 10 Jewish adults. The number 10 was derived from the first verse in Psalm 82, which reads: "God stands in the congregation of God." The Hebrew word “edah” (congregation) is also applied to the ten spies who, in the days of Moses, brought a negative report on the Land of Canaan. Hence, it was established that a "congregation of God" consists of at least 10 adults.

There was a time, some 2,400 years ago, the definition of a minyan was not so rigid. We find that in the late geonic work, we read that a minyan is required for the recitation of certain prayers - but we also note that "our Sages in Palestine recited these in the presence of only seven - and some say even in the presence of six." This practice never caught on, however. The rule of the Babylonian Jews was adopted everywhere, and a full quorum of ten adults has been required ever since.

From time to time there have been many situations that congregations ran into problems making a quorum so rabbis attempted variations of compromises to make a minyan work. Some argued that counting a young person, especially if he was very bright, can be counted as the 10th person. Others would use a young lad if he held a humash in his hand during prayers. Then there were and probably still are some congregations who pay people to attend a service to make a minyan. We, at CSH, also make a compromise. We would partially open the ark and use the presence of the Torahs to fill the void but with one exception; we do not read Torah without a legitimate quorum of 10. We all strive for a “10” like the gymnasts of the world.

See you at minyan!

Cantor Emil

Let us bless the Source of life, who performs the mysteries of creation.

As you all know, on March 8, Raphael and I were given a gift: our son, Ariel. He is the greatest joy of our lives, and having Ariel has given us the ability to love more deeply than we knew was possible.

For the past two months I was on maternity leave, focusing primarily on Ariel and on my own physical recovery. Now that I am back, I just wanted to say "thank you." While I was on maternity leave, many of you from this community sent cards and gifts, you made donations to CSH and to other important Jewish institutions, and you called and emailed to ask how I was doing. While none of this was expected, it was all appreciated. Congregation Shirat Hayam is an incredibly loving and welcoming community of people who care about each other. I had seen, as an observer, how people in this community take care of others, but now I can attest to it first hand.

As I write this, I am delighted to be back at work, to see everyone again, and ready to pick up from where I left off. I am excited about the new musical and educational programming that is in the works for next year, and for the High Holy Days, which will be here before you know it.

David Rosenberg and Joe Selby, Co-Presidents

Eighth Annual Meeting

On Tuesday evening, May 21, David Rosenberg and Joseph Selby were installed as co-presidents of Congregation Shirat Hayam. Each made a statement, thanking Andrew Caplan for his leadership. The co-presidents spoke passionately about their commitment to the congregation. Proud of the fact that CSH provides a spiritual home for congregants and visitors alike, David and Joe are excited to take it to the next level.

Goals for their term include addressing budgetary issues, while maintaining the quality of programming and services people have come to expect from Shirat Hayam. David and Joe offered their support to the clergy and staff.

David and/or Joe will be submitting regular articles for future issues of the Wave. If you would like to contact CSH’s new co-presidents with questions, concerns or compliments, you may email them at: Leadership@ShiratHayam.org.

Looking Forward...

During my first year here at CSH, I have focused on understanding the “behind the scenes” intricacies, processes and culture as well as the financial position of our shul. As I mentioned in my WAVE article last month, our staff and lay leadership has put together a fiscal budget that is a true and transparent representation of our current financial status. It has been incredibly tedious and challenging, yet also very reassuring to know that we have dissected every revenue line item and every expense we incur to make sure the dollar figure is relevant and authentic.

We fully understand our commitment to continue to offer the programing and services that make CSH the amazing place it has come to be, while maintaining our fiscal responsibility.

There will be changes in some of the operational processes here at CSH…some you will never notice and others we will communicate to you so that everyone understands the reason for the change. We hope that you will appreciate the efforts we are all making NOT to move backwards, but to react to issues that may not have been identified in the past, that, if continued, would place our shul in an uncomfortable position.

It is now time for me to put on my CEO hat and to work on entrepreneurial initiatives to produce recurring revenue to help offset our shortfalls, while at the same time offering our CSH family the chance to utilize some great services and programs…more information to come in the very near future!!

We are planning some wonderful fundraising programs starting with our Monte Carlo Night on November 2…make sure you save the date as it is going to be an experience you will not forget!! We will be putting together a CSH Directory for our Congregational family that will not only offer contact information but professional info as well should you need to obtain the professional services from within our CSH family. We are very excited to start, what we hope will be an annual tradition here at CSH at Purim, by providing Mischloach Manot baskets for you to send to all your friends and family…again, more information to come in due time. We are looking at the possibility of presenting a Beer and Wine Tasting/Coffee House program bringing to CSH amazing musical talent, as well as libations, to broaden your beverage list of options. There are also a few other amazing projects we are working on, but you will just have to wait and see what they are…you will be pleasantly suprised!!

We will be running a Textile Recycling Program that will give you the chance to recycle and donate your clothing and textiles to help our environment, as well as to financially support CSH. Talk about a double mitzvah!!

This is all good!!! We want you to know we are on top of this and will continue to strive to offer the highest quality of services and programming that you have come to expect here. Your part is to continue supporting us by attending these programs, utilizing our services and fulfilling your financial commitments to CSH.

I am very excited about our incoming Executive Committee and Board of Directors under the leadership of Joe Selby and David Rosenberg, and I look forward to working with them and our staff towards building the best Congregation Shirat Hayam we can.

Remember…

Together we can…together we will; see you soon @ CSH,

Bob
Leslie Rooks Sack, Preschool Director

June in the Preschool is always such a wonderfully busy, bittersweet time for the teachers and the children! The 2012-2013 school year is about to come to a close. This means looking back and sharing in so many wonderful memories of so many great learning experiences we have all shared together. This also means we will miss those children who are off to kindergarten in the fall—so happy we were part of their wondrous growth—and we wish them continued happy learning!

June means our Preschool’s annual end-of-the-year Carnival for our Preschool families. Rain or shine, this is a Carnival not to be missed! We thank Melissa Gallo, again, (and her crew!) for all the hard work involved in making what we know will be another successful Preschool Carnival!

How lucky we are to have had Joe Simons again create our Preschool yearbook. What a lasting pictorial memory of all the children and teachers sharing their lives together this past year. Our many thanks to Joe for all his time and effort.

With our Preschool year about to end, we happily set our sights on our Summerthing Camp. As well as all our traditional camp activities, we are excited this summer to be partnering with Judi Simmons and her daughter, Jill, of Camp Menorah, on beautiful Lake Chebacco in Essex. On Tuesdays, counselors from Camp Menorah will come to our camp, right in our own ‘backyard’, bringing special activities for all our campers to enjoy! Each Thursday, our 4 and 5 year-old campers will take a bus ride with our Summerthing staff to Camp Menorah. Here, the children will participate in special activities, such as boating, fishing, scavenger hunts, waterfront, sports, and much more!

Please see me for more information on Summerthing Camp and all the other options available for childcare beginning the week of June 10th. We make wonderful use of our outdoor playground facilities as we ‘turn it into our Summerthing Camp’, as well as enjoy those hazy, hot summer moments inside our fully air conditioned school.

Todah Rabah!

Our thanks to Jennifer Bookman for organizing such a special Family Night Dinner for our Preschool families in May. With her Preschool parent crew, including Laura Gaunt, Jessica Heller and Lisa Manning, she outdid herself in preparing delicious food choices in her successful effort to appease all the families’ palates, especially those with food allergies. She took this opportunity to represent the Preschool parents in honoring the teachers. This, mixed with musical entertainment from Kelly Cormier of Kiwi Studios in Marblehead, was a fun way to enjoy our Preschool community together!

Shalom Chaverim:

We have reached the end of our school year – and we are already planning for next September! In Proverbs we read: Teach each child according to their way, so that when they are old, they shall not depart from it. Proverbs 22:6

This text motivates and shapes our approach to Jewish education here in the Center for Jewish Education – each of our students (and children) is a unique individual, with their own gifts and contributions to make to our Jewish world. We encourage them to engage with Jewish culture, history, and religious practice to enrich both their lives and the lives of our community.

Some of the highlights from our year include:

a. Our Limud Shabbat program is the premiere Shabbat experience program for Jewish kids on the North Shore. It is our ground-breaking approach to contextual Jewish education that encourages our children to participate in Jewish learning and worship in the most authentic way possible – but doing so in Jewish time – on Shabbat!

b. On Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we continued to offer study/worship opportunities for our 7-13 year-olds with Aliza Berger, and an expanded worship experience for our 3-6 year-olds led by Rachel Schwartz and Marcy Yellin. We also offered a special family service on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, led by Cantor Elana and I, as well as a Rosh Hashanah Family tashlich service at the beach - three important opportunities for parents and children to worship together.

c. Our B’Yachad program for children with Special Needs, the first of its kind in our community, continued to be led by master teacher Rachel Schwartz. Students met an average of three times per month, and this year our numbers doubled – we are thrilled to have so many new friends join us for Jewish learning.

d. Our 7th graders continued to study Jewish values and become T’filah assistants during the Torah service. They help the Cantors, Rabbi, and gabbaim on the bima during services, preparing for their turn to lead the congregation in worship as they become Bar and Bat Mitzvah.

e. 7th and 8th graders participated in a number of community service programs in our community.

f. Our 5th graders led our congregation in the Torah service twice during the year, allowing us to recognize and celebrate their Hebrew learning achievements, as well as giving us a small hint of what will happen in two years when they become b’nai mitzvah.

g. Israel 65: One of our students’ most outstanding projects spanned the entire school and was created during the spring. Every class studied something different about Israel and prepared projects reflecting their learning. Grades 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and B’yachad made videos of their presentations which we shared with parents from youtube. Subscribe to our channel at: http://www.youtube.com/user/CJECSH.

h. Todah Rabah to all of our volunteers for helping with our family celebrations of the holidays, including Sukkot Farm Day, Simchat Torah, Chanukah, Tu B’Shevat and Pesach. A special todah rabah to Cheryl Schwartz for working closely with volunteers and staff - creating engaging activities for all of our families and kids.

i. We celebrated Kabbalat Shabbat together with grade-specific family Shabbat dinners. We had a great evening with great company!

Keeping The Faith - The Next “Greatest” Generation with Rabbi B

Wednesday, June 19 - 6:30 pm

Back In My Day: Billy Joel sings in “Keeping The Faith”

You can get just so much from a good thing; You can linger too long in your dreams;
Say goodbye to the “Oldies But Goodies”; cause the good ole days weren’t always good;
And tomorrow ain’t as bad as it seems.

As Jews, Americans and human beings we tend to wax nostalgic about “the good old days,” as we look to the future with a bit of pessimism for what lies ahead for our people, this country and the human race. Now, more than ever, in each of these areas, it is understandable and easy to do. Indeed, never before has an upcoming generation like “The Millennials” (those born between 1980-2000) been so narcissistic, entitled, lazy and just plain strange. And yet, as unique as this upcoming generation is, indeed, they just might be “The Greatest Generation” of our time. Indeed, this new generation just might save us all!

Join us as we explore Jewish text, American history, and modern dilemmas and opportunities. The good old days weren’t always good and tomorrow ain’t as bad as it seems. BBQ dinner will be served.

Hooray for Hollywood

Thursday, June 27 - 7:30 pm

Join Izzi Abrams for an informative and stimulating evening as we look at and discuss Hollywood’s image of the American Jewish experience. We will look at the history of the Jews in Hollywood, the men and women who made it happen. This program will also feature a partial viewing and discussion of the film, “Annie Hall.” Dessert will be served.

Give My Regards to Broadway

Wednesday, July 10 - 7:30 pm

The American Musical Theatre, viewed by most as the quintessential American art form, actually finds its roots in the Eastern European Jewish experience: from Second Avenue Yiddish Theatre, to Irving Berlin’s celebration of mainstream America, to Kander and Ebb’s overt portrayal of anti-semitism during the Second World War. Join Cantor Elana as we explore the evolution of the American Musical Theatre: its history, its stories, and its music. Dessert will be served.

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER, EVERYONE!!!
Marla Gay, Director

Ma Nishmah? What’s Happening?

I need you. We need you. Volunteers are what make CSH successful. We are trying very hard to cut our budget items and the only way to do that, is with your help. For example, Shabbat Olam. We’re trying to plan a few and can cut costs considerably if volunteers help shop for the food, help set up the room and even help cook! This is just one example of the many opportunities that can help us continue the quality of programming that has become expected, and still allow us to cut our expenses.

If you’re interested, please contact me at: Marla@ShiratHayam.org or 781.599.8005, Ext. 27.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Have a wonderful and safe summer!

Hi

My name is Ian Kane and my Bar Mitzvah is September 21, 2013. My mitzvah project is helping with the Shirat Hayam community organic garden.

So far, we have two low beds, but would like to build additional beds so that we can grow more food. We are looking for volunteers to help us achieve our goal.

You can participate in the following ways:

- Planting
- Watering (any time of day)
- Building a bed
- Weeding

We also need donations to help fund the beds and additional supplies, such as tools or soil.

Come and enjoy the outside – whether you can come during the week or on a weekend.

You will have a great time, meet new people and connect with the community.

Thanks!

Ian

Early Mystic Minyan - 8:30 am
As it says in the Mishnah, the early mystics would gather together and sit for an hour before even attempting to formally engage in prayer. So too at CSH we offer the Early Mystic Minyan as an option for practitioners of meditation to come and sit as we begin to open up the space of our Sanctuary on Shabbat and of our hearts in the early quiet hours before the crowds arrive. There will be minimal, if any, instruction for the first fifteen minutes. It is a time to gather one’s self and one’s thoughts together through individual prayer without words.

Renewal Minyan - 8:45 - 9:50 am
The Renewal Minyan is an attempted synthesis of keva – the traditional structure of tefillah (Jewish prayers) with kavanah – spiritual depth within the prayer itself. During the Renewal Minyan we are committed to traversing the Shabbat morning tefillot structure (Birkot HaShachar, P’suekei D’Zimrah, Shachrit), but not necessarily davening (praying) each and every prayer along the way. Our aim, again, is to strike a balance between breadth and depth, and within a one hour period that is a fine balance, to be sure.

Living Minyan: Traditional Prayers and Learning - 9:00 am
The great thing about being Jewish is to be part of a tradition that is thousands of years old! But if you can’t read Hebrew, don’t know the words, or maybe can’t carry a tune, tradition can feel a little daunting. Would you like to learn more about the traditional morning service that greets the day on Shabbat? Come join Cantor Emil and friends in a safe, welcoming space to discover the beauty of traditional Jewish liturgy, prayer, and song in a user-friendly format. You can build your knowledge and self-confidence, and impress your bubbe or grandchild. Everyone’s invited, including the tone-deaf and non-Hebrew-readers!

Yoga Minyan - 10:00 am
A full-body Shabbat experience. Yoga Minyan incorporates yoga practice with a Shabbat theme.

Nosh and Drash - 10:00 am
Grab a cup of coffee and nosh at the Boker Tov Café, and join the guest rabbi or scholar for a Torah-based Shabbat learning experience.

Anything that hinders maintenance will be removed and families will be charged accordingly. This Year’s Tour de Shuls date is Sunday, June 30. It is a bicycle ride to support the Tikvah program for special needs young adults at Camp Ramah in Palmer, Mass. There will be routes of 10, 25, 50 and 75 miles around the North Shore with rest stops at synagogues in Gloucester, Newburyport and Beverly. All rides start and end at Shirat Hayam, and there are plans for post ride entertainment, as well as a barbeque. Riders can register online at tourdeshuls.org and click on New England region. Campers and staff from Ramah also participate as both riders and volunteers. Last year’s experience was fun and rewarding for all, and we anticipate an even better event this year.

For more information, contact Jeff Brand: jhbrand@comcast.net or Ben Yellin: byellin1@verizon.net

To register and/or contribute go to http://www.tourdeshuls.org, click on New England Region ride, and follow the prompts.
Brotherhood

May started off with our biggest Scholarship Awards Ceremony yet! Over 70 people joined us for breakfast as we formally celebrated 11 CSH graduating high school seniors on May 5th. We awarded over $4,500 in scholarships.

Our Community Garden is beginning to sprout, thanks to the hard work of several Brotherhood members and people throughout CSH! This CSH-wide project is a collaborative between Brotherhood, CJE, and the Preschool, with room for all ages and gardening experience levels. If you are interested in helping out or learning more, please contact Brotherhood Chair Chris Hockert at chockert@me.com.

Next up is our now-famous Texas Hold ‘Em Poker Night on Tuesday, June 11, following the 7 pm minyan. As usual, a $25 buy-in includes “$5,000” in poker chips, delicious deli buffet, and drinks – and, of course, a great time. Rounding out June, on Sunday the 30th, we will host our second Tour de Shuls bicycle ride.

Finally, join us for breakfast and our monthly Brotherhood planning meeting on Sunday, June 16, at 9:45 am. Or come for the minyan at 9 am and stay for the meeting. This is an important meeting, as we will elect next year’s officers. We are accepting nominations for all positions: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Recording Secretary. Please attend and vote!

Chesed Committee
Karynn Needel and Beth Hoffman, Co-chairs

The Chesed Committee has been very busy lending a hand by providing meals, rides, visits and general emotional support to the congregation, as needed. The committee’s mission is to help congregants and their families in times of crisis. They are the first responders, there to do triage until other “sources” are notified and become available.

If you want to become a part of this GREAT committee, please let us know. There is a little something for everyone to do within the Chesed Committee!

Please contact us if you know of someone in need. We can only help those that we know about.

Thank you!

Spirited Sisters: Circle at the Sea

Come celebrate the joy of Judaism, and the soul connection and support of our sister seekers. Together we will share in spiritual conversation and exploration. We will sing, dance, study, observe, play and share from the heart as we touch into mystical, magical, meaningful women’s experiences and deep gifts of our foremothers.

The Circle meets monthly and will be led by those of us who wish to share our gifts, talents and interests in this co-created gathering. You are invited to attend one or all. All women are welcome and no Hebrew is necessary.

The Sisters have wrapped up another successful year. Please mark your calendars for next year to join this wonderful program.

The Spirited Sisters will meet on Sunday evenings,
7:00 to 9:00 pm at CSH: 2013 - October 6, November 3, December 1
2014 - March 2, April 6, May 4

For more information, please contact Mimi at: healthenergy@verizon.net or 781-631-0318.
WHY? Each year tons of clothing and textiles are dumped in the trash, costing residents money. When you donate or recycle clothing, your green efforts help the environment and everyone saves money.

HOW? WHERE? Donate your clothing to a reputable charity or visit the SMART website www.SMARTasn.org to find out where donation bins are located in your area by typing in your zip code in the “Find a Recycling Location” section. All clothing and textiles in ANY condition that are clean and dry can be recycled.

WHAT? ACCEPTABLE ITEMS: All types of used clothing, footwear & household textiles. Items such as: shirts, pants, sheets, drapes, pillows, handbags, belts, soft toys and footwear.

NON-ACCEPTABLE ITEMS: Carpets, rugs, mattresses, bric-brac, oil rags, wet or mildewed articles.

This program will begin at Shirat Hayam in August. Watch for more information in the July/August Wave.

In the meantime, don’t throw away your clothing and textiles! Save them for CSH.
You know you’ll have worn beach towels at the end of the summer...
This is an easy fundraiser for CSH and it costs you nothing!

My Mitzvah Project

For my mitzvah project I am selling bake goods to help raise money to defray the cost of a Brain Tumor Walk around the Marblehead Neck that I am helping to organize. This walk will take place in November of 2013. This cause is very important to me because two of my grandparents died from a Brain Tumor. Also, one of my closest friends survived a Brain Tumor and I am so glad she is still here by my side. I want to help raise money for this cause so that more research can be done to find a cure for Brain Tumors. In order for the walk to be successful as possible and to raise as much money to find a cure, I need your help! So purchase your bake goods now!

Thank you for your support!
