What is the Healing Havurah?

The Healing Havurah (HH) is a perfect example of our mission at CSH - to synthesize tradition and spirit.

Traditionally, during tefillot (prayer services), we have a healing prayer called a MiShebeirakh. This is usually done during the Torah service, done at lightning speed with a list of names read in a perfunctory manner. The idea is good, however, the spirit is usually missing.

The HH is that same tradition. It is an opportunity to formally recite a prayer, to say a blessing, to articulate and share the names of family, friends, community and even strangers who are physically, emotionally or spiritually struggling, suffering or dying. Instead of merely reciting their names, however, the HH creates for us a space in our busy world, a few moments of breathing time in our frenzied lives to stop, to sit, to think about those who are struggling, suffering or dying and to recommit to doing what we can in bringing them any degree of shalom. And sometimes that shalom is what we ask for and need for ourselves as well.

The HH uses musical accompaniment, song, chant and reflection as a means of opening us up to face the dis-ease and find some ease, healing and shalom. The HH provides us a safe and sacred place amidst our pain, loneliness or sorrow where we don't have to be alone, are part of a Havurah (realtime and virtual) - a sea of caring, understanding and loving brothers and sisters who are willing to walk this path together.

Neither are you free to desist from it.

workers are lazy, the reward is much, and the master of the house is impatient.

What is the Ruach Rally?

The Ruach Rally is another perfect example of our mission at CSH - to rejuvenate your spirit. Most traditional services conclude with the singing of Adon Olam. We continue that tradition here at Shirat Hayam, but take it several levels higher. Music, a universal language, unites us all at this point in the service.

Ruach Rally is an opportunity to sing, dance and raise you to a spirited level of participation. People who are family, friends, guests or even strangers are encouraged to stand and open their hearts as we sing arm-in-arm and feel the true joy that is Shabbat.

Shirat Hayam's Ruach Rally Band is comprised of volunteers and led by Cantor Elana. The band practices weekly to provide our congregation with the best experience possible.

During our Shabbat Synaplex™, everyone chooses a path to their own authentic experience. Whether that is Renewal Service, Yoga, Nosh & Drash, Healing Havurah or the Traditional Service, Ruach Rally allows us all to come together as a united community before making our way to the Shabbat Café.

At Shirat Hayam, we practice radical hospitality. If you see someone standing alone during Ruach Rally, please join them or invite them to join you. Our goal is that no one will be a stranger in our community by the end of Ruach Rally.

Join us for lunch - we welcome you.
Shabbat Shalom.

We practice radical hospitality.
