40 years and going strong:
infants to age 5; 7:30 am to 6:00 pm
year-round
Shalom,

As many of you know, the Marblehead School Committee recently decided to bring up for discussion the elimination of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, as well as Good Friday, as days off within their school system. By the time you read this it will have been decided one way or the other. However, even if they decide to do the right thing, at this point it is almost secondary to the fact that they would bring this up for discussion at all. I’m sure I don’t have to make the case to you why this is so deeply problematic. Sure these days will be “excused absences” and technically not count against the students (though I’m not certain about Jewish teachers and believe they would be forced to use these as vacation days). However, we all know that this only causes divisions within the student body, alienation of the Jewish students and feelings of being “outsiders” for all of us within our own schools. Most of all it sends a hurtful message to the Jewish community - that our holiest days of the year are not worthy of community-wide respect anymore like Easter or Christmas (yes, Good Friday under attack is also wrong).

Still, the real issue at hand is the context in which this is taking place. After a year of unprecedented anti-Semitism, when it feels uncomfortable at times to admit you are a Zionist, hostile to express your Zionism on college campuses, or dangerous to wear a kippah in too many places within Europe - it is truly insensitive for our very own town to be so calloused about this issue. But, worst of all, is if Jews or non-Jews sit quietly in the face of such affronts. Now, more than ever before, whether it’s with issues like this, or anti-Zionism in schools or across campuses, or anti-Semitic remarks at cocktail parties by well intentioned (or not so well intentioned) acquaintances - we can not be silent. As it says in the Talmud, “shtika k’hodaya - silence is consent.” Do not be silent. Do not consent. Speak up. Speak out. Never again isn’t just some slogan. It is a mantra of our people to stand up, speak up and speak out against affronts, big or small. Never again be silent. Never again!

Restorative Shabbat

An alternative service on Friday, April 17 at 6:00 pm with Mimi Nelson Oliver

Combining the beauty of Restorative Yoga and Kabbalat Shabbat, we will enter into the essence of Shabbat –

Restoring our Bodies, Minds, and Spirits

Calming our nervous systems from the busy week,

Opening our Hearts and Souls to the precious gift of Shabbat.

Restorative Yoga is a practice of letting go into poses with the use of props. While in the poses, you will be invited into sacred prayer and meditation.

Please bring any yoga blankets, bolsters or props you may have. We will have mats, blocks and chairs. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY! EVERY-BODY welcome!
My Debut

My world debut as a singer began as follows: I had prepared tirelessly for this moment. I wore my killer black and white checkered dress, my red patent leather Mary Janes, put my hair in a show-stopping up-do, and ascended the stage. I was four; the “stage” was our Pesach seder, and the performance was “The Four Questions.”

While many holidays are full of elements that are traditionally meant for grown-up males, sitting for hours in shul, praying and studying, Pesach’s main element takes place in the home. It is meant for the entire family to take part, to understand, and to feel. While most of the year, children below the age of B’nei mitzvah are not counted, even excluded to some degree, on Pesach, the stars of the show ARE our children.

Moses, himself, stresses the importance of teaching our children when he explains the ritual of placing blood on the doorpost. He directs the people to explain why they are doing this when their children ask you, "What does this ceremony mean to you?" (Exodus 12:26) To Moses, it was crucial that the children not only understood HOW how to perform these rituals, but WHY they should perform these rituals.

The Pesach seder not only respects all members of the family, regardless of age and gender, but it also engages every type of learner. We see this in the Haggadah's reference to the "four children." We have the wise child, the “good student” who listens in class, eager to complete his homework. We have the wicked child who is not really wicked at all, but probably has a different learning style. He is possibly the most difficult child to reach because he does not willingly accept the information given. We also have the simple child, who might not be brilliant, but is open and willing to go along for the ride. Finally, we have the child who does not know how to ask. This child might be young, like my son, who may notice these unusual rituals, but does not yet know how to ask “why.” We are taught that each of us has elements of all these children within us. These include a variety of learning styles and behaviors, all God-given. On Pesach, our goal is to make the Exodus story come alive for ALL of our children.

Maybe this is why I love Pesach so much. I have always been an artist who has expressed herself through various media, including visual art, dance and choreography, theatre and singing. As a cantor, I have always been interested in different ways in which to access learners of all types, and I've come to believe that the Pesach seder is the ideal opportunity.

This Pesach, I challenge you to put away the Maxwell House Haggadah, and to purchase a more creative guide to this potentially inspirational holiday. Here are some books and links that can help you create a Pesach Seder for all ages, all learning styles, and all personalities. Enjoy, and Chag Sameach!

We are thrilled to announce the hiring of Hillary Canner as the new Preschool Director. Hillary will begin working on a half-time basis on May 4th. She will work directly with Leslie to ensure that the most optimal transition takes place. She will begin full-time on June 15, 2015.

Hillary Canner has been a preschool teacher and Hebrew educator for 15 years. She earned a degree from the University of Massachusetts in Early Childhood Education, focusing on early mathematics and reading development and is Level II Director Certified. Over the years, Hillary developed a keen understanding of children with special needs and abilities and refined her teaching philosophy based on learning through play. Prior to working in education, she honed her communication skills in sales and marketing.

Hillary is happily married, and lives with her family in Andover, MA. She enjoys reading, movies, music and television. She is a talented baker, having perfected her Challah recipe and teaching many aspiring bakers the craft. Hillary has a deep-rooted love of travel stemming back to her youth as the daughter of a diplomat. In addition, Hillary likes painting and drawing; she has painted wall murals in public buildings and designs logos for businesses.

Hillary Canner is incredibly excited to share her love of working with children and education at Shirat Hayam, and looks forward to getting to know and participate in the community.

Please stop by on Sunday, April 12 at 3:30 in the afternoon to say hello and meet our new Preschool Director.

Please let us know if you’ll be coming and if you are bringing your children so we may plan accordingly.

Tribute to Leslie Rooks Sack

We don’t want to let the cat out of the bag just yet, so please watch for more information on our tribute to Leslie Rooks Sack for her 40 years of dedication to the former Beth El and current Shirat Hayam Preschool.

Everyone will have the opportunity to wish Leslie well on her journey.
We have BIG things planned - and we’ll need your help!

Stay tuned!

Ma Nish’mah? What’s Happening?

The CSH Brotherhood has been working countless hours preparing the memorial plaques for those who wish to have them returned. Removing some from the walls and others from their mountings is a monumental task on its own, but they are also sorting them alphabetically so they can be easily retrieved. Once they have had the opportunity to finish this part of the project, the congregation will be notified, likely in early May. Forms will be available to request specific plaques. Once those forms are received by CSH, the family will be contacted within a couple of days to come pick up the plaques. All plaques will have to be signed for. Please consult with family members so all members don’t request the same plaque separately. Plaques will be given to the first family member that submits the form.

Please be patient. We want to honor the memory of those whose names are on the plaques, therefore we want this to be a thoughtful, methodical process. We appreciate your cooperation.

All names have been transferred from the plaques of Temple Israel, Temple Beth El and Anshei Tsfard, to the display in the Memorial Alcove. If you would like to add pictures or a bio, please contact me.

Thank you and happy Passover!

Marla
What fun all our children and teachers had - ages 3 months to 5 years - dressed up in costumes for our Annual Preschool Purim Parade last month. The fun didn’t stop there . . . the children also enjoyed a Purim Puppet Show! It was such a fun way to celebrate Purim as you can see in the pictures below!

This month will find the children learning about Passover, and they will create lots of important things to use at their own seders. We are also looking forward to the teachers performing a special Passover skit, complete with Moses as a baby and then, right before everyone’s eyes, Moses grows up to be a man!

Summerthing Camp at our Preschool is open for registration, offering lots of options from 7:30 am - 6:00 pm, ages 3 months - 5 years old. Of course, all campers will become “expert” gardeners, as they join in tending to The Gan (Garden) at Shirat Hayam! This continues to be a remarkable teaching tool to instill in our children tikkum olam (taking care of our earth) and having them experience all the joys from planting seeds, nourishing and harvesting the growth, and then enjoying the vegetables.

Registration continues for the 2015-16 school year, which begins this September. We offer a variety of learning programs, as well as our PlayCare (daycare) for children ages 3 months - 5 years old, from 7:30 am - 6:00 pm daily, all year long. To register for Summerthing Camp or our School Programming, please contact me!

Early Mystic Minyan - 8:30 am weekly

As it says in the Mishnah, the early mystics would gather together and sit for an hour before even attempting to formally engage in prayer. So too at CSH we offer the Early Mystic Minyan as an option for practitioners of meditation to come and sit as we begin to open up the space of our Sanctuary on Shabbat and of our hearts in the early quiet hours before the crowds arrive. There will be minimal, if any, instruction for the first fifteen minutes. It is a time to gather one's self and one's thoughts together through individual prayer without words.

Renewal Minyan - 8:45 - 9:50 am weekly

The Renewal Minyan is an attempted synthesis of keva – the traditional structure of tefillah (Jewish prayers) with kavanah – spiritual depth within the prayer itself. During the Renewal Minyan we are committed to traversing the Shabbat morning tefillot structure (Birkot HaShachar, P’sukei D’Zimrah, Shachrit), but not necessarily davening (praying) each and every prayer along the way. Our aim, again, is to strike a balance between breadth and depth, and within a one hour period that is a fine balance, to be sure.

Living Minyan: Traditional Prayers and Learning - 9:00 am weekly

The great thing about being Jewish is to be part of a tradition that is thousands of years old! But if you can’t read Hebrew, don’t know the words, or maybe can’t carry a tune, tradition can feel a little daunting. Come and join Jan Brodie and friends in a safe, welcoming space to discover the beauty of traditional Jewish liturgy, prayer and song in a user-friendly format.

Yoga Minyan - 10:00 am weekly

A full-body Shabbat experience. Yoga Minyan incorporates yoga practice with a Shabbat theme.

Nosh and Drash - 10:00 am weekly

Grab a cup of coffee and a nosh at the Boker Tov Café, and join the guest rabbi or scholar for a Torah-based Shabbat learning experience.

Magic Minyan - 10:45 - 11:30 am (date below)

Chesed Committee
Nancy Sarles, Chair

Shalom,

Please join our Chesed Committee to assist our congregation members at times, both urgent and on-going, with the generous energy of our congregation.

Chesed is our opportunity to give and receive a helping hand. Please volunteer for as little as a few hours a year to care for the needs of our members.

Chesed ‘Reach Out’ program is to assist in emergency situations with meals, rides, child care, or Shiva. Chesed ‘Reach In’ program is to address our members’ more on-going needs such as a phone call, a visit, a meal, a ride to services, a new member buddy, new parent outreach, or simply being in touch and lending a helping hand.

I invite you to email me with your name, email address and phone number where you can be called on to help.

As a Chesed Committee volunteer, there are no meetings. All communications are by email and phone, when needed.

Please call CSH if you have any needs we can help with.

With lovingkindness,
Nancy Sheena Sarles

We Remember Them
To memorialize your loved one with a listing including English and Hebrew name and date of death, a photograph, a biography and link to other family members on the Electronic Yahrzeit Board, the cost is $360.00 for each listing.

If you had a memorial plaque at Temple Beth El, Temple Israel or Anshei Sfard, those names have already been listed on the board. You may add a photograph, biography and family link to the existing names at no charge.

If you would like more information, a demonstration or if you would like to participate with a memorial tribute for your loved ones, contact Marla Gay, Director of Congregational Life, at 781.599.8005 Ext. 27 or email: Marla@Shirathayam.org.
