Z’man Elul - A Season for Reflection

My first month at Congregation Shirat Hayam has been exhilarating. Shabbat is filled with passion and kavannah, singing and chanting, learning, schmoozing, and celebration. As I pursue my initial goal of meeting as many people as possible, I’ve been impressed by the engagement, thoughtfulness, commitment and kindness of the Shirat Hayam community. As for my family, we love the North Shore, especially the people, beaches and ice cream. We feel blessed to be here.

Elul, the Hebrew month that precedes Rosh Hashanah, is a time for reflection. As I reflect upon this whirlwind first month, I realize that the intensity is a result of my strategy to immerse myself in the community. At the same time I realize that I’ll need time in the fall to process the information that I’ve absorbed, articulate a vision, and prioritize goals.

There is a growing awareness of the importance of reflection in the business world. For example, Peter Miller teaches that engaging in self-reflection builds secure knowledge of oneself, improving leadership potential and performance. In addition, the authors of a Harvard Business School working paper “argue that learning from direct experience can be more effective if coupled with reflection—that is, the intentional attempt to synthesize, abstract, and articulate the key lessons taught by experience.”

In the Jewish tradition, the importance of reflection, contemplation, and meditation is evidenced by the prominent placement of these words at the beginning of various Jewish wisdom texts. For instance, Psalm 1 highlights the traits of the righteous, “he meditates on God’s law day and night” (verse 2). Additionally, the first Mishna in chapters two and three of Pirkei Avot reads, “Ponder these three things and you will avoid falling into sin...”

These ancient wisdom texts are a guided meditation; they offer a text for our contemplation. Contemporary Judaism, however, recognizes the importance of self-reflection, which is most intense during z’man Elul, the period prior to and through the High Holy Days. Before entering the shul on Rosh Hashanah, I encourage you to devote some time to personal contemplation. Perhaps you’ll appreciate Tsafi Lev’s questions (see http://bit.ly/1IUINQi) or try these three prompts.

1. Recall a situation from the past year in which you feel particularly proud of yourself. Why is this a fitting example of your best self? What enabled you to shine in this moment? How can your light shine more brightly and frequently in the year to come?

2. Now think about a moment when someone hurt you during the past year. What happened? Why does the pain linger? What do you need from them to heal? What is in your power to promote healing, justice, and reconciliation?

3. Finally, contemplate a moment in which you were not your best self, a moment when you hurt someone. How do you feel recalling this incident? Acknowledge your feelings, review the deed, and ask for forgiveness or, privately, confess it aloud.

Soon Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will be upon us. To more fully appreciate the Days of Awe, take a little time for yourself beforehand. Reflect upon the past year and your hopes for the year to come. Then, bring a notecard to services with your main insights, allowing your z’man Elul contemplation to inform your High Holy Day meditations.

Thank you to everyone who helped with our arrival and welcomed us, whether introducing themselves, helping to create an event, giving tips on local outings, talking with me, hanging out with our kids, running with Sarah, blessing our home with wine, bread, sugar and salt, and so much more.

L’shana tova umetukah (wishing you a good and sweet year),

Dear Congregants,

On behalf of the CSH Board of Directors, I wish to express our gratitude for the significant contributions made by our former Preschool Director, Leslie Sack.

Leslie founded the Preschool some four decades ago and led the institution through major institutional changes and several challenging times. Throughout her tenure, Leslie demonstrated dedicated leadership and the utmost care for the welfare and education of our children and their families. Indeed, she consistently instilled in our children the positive virtues, important moral code and Jewish values we all cherish as adults.

I deeply regret the manner in which Leslie’s career at the Preschool ended and know we can all learn to handle such transitions more delicately in the future. We take this opportunity, however, to express our appreciation for Leslie’s contributions and acknowledge Leslie’s longstanding work to always improve the Preschool and build a strong and vibrant social and educational experience for our children. As a token of our appreciation, we will be creating a plaque commemorating Leslie’s service and displaying it at the Preschool.

On behalf of the Board and our entire Shirat Hayam community, we thank Lelsie for all her hard work and wish her all the very best in the future.

B’Shalom,

Howie

Howard Abrams, MD

President, Board of Directors
Dear CSH Family,

As we begin the new year of 5776, we take the time to reflect on the past year as we look to the future. The goal is not to repeat past mistakes, but to improve ourselves and be open to how we perceive others. Here at CSH, we had a great year that saw many changes. Some were difficult for us. We are a very resilient congregation with a strong sense of community. As we build on that foundation in the coming year, I am requesting that we work together. If you have an idea for a program, or feedback from one you attended, please feel free to come to a staff member and share your thoughts. The ony stipulation is that any criticism is presented in a constructive manner. If you perceive a problem, suggest a solution. It’s nice to hear good things too. So often, it’s easier to complain, because we take the success of CSH for granted. Please remember that 10+ years ago, we were two dying synagogues. We are now the current, thriving congregation. We were able to build this because we were willing to make mistakes, dust ourselves off and try again. It has occasionally been a bumpy road, but one worth traveling.

There is no way we can acheive perfection for everyone. However, before you repeat a story about CSH in Stop & Shop or Marshall’s, please talk to a staff person to confirm your facts. Let’s set our goal for this year to eliminate the Lashon Harah (gossip) urge. We are a small staff trying our best to accommodate over 2,000 members. Please be patient and think before criticizing. Ask before condemning. Be proactive in helping create the synagogue community that you want to be a part of. Don’t wait for others to do it for you. As the saying goes, “it takes a village.” I would take poetic license and say, “it takes a shul.”

On behalf of my family and myself, I wish you all a peaceful and joyous new year and look forward to celebrating many wonderful occasions with you.

Shana Tovah U’Mtukah,

Marla

Second Day Sukkot

Tuesday, September 29

9:30 am at Temple Sinai in Marblehead

If you would like to observe Sukkot on this day, you are invited to join Rabbi Michael at Temple Sinai for their morning Sukkot service.
Hillary Canner, Preschool Director

The Shirat Hayam Preschool and Daycare has enjoyed a wonderful summer. We have just concluded seven weeks of camp. Our campers gardened, celebrated America, pretended to be at the beach, learned about bugs, played super heroes and pretended to have our own circus. We had so much fun and the time went by so fast.

Our Fall Program is very exciting. We have our top of the line Preschool morning and we have extended the afternoons to include a myriad of activities that are designed to encourage growth through adventures and discovery. We will be celebrating the Jewish holidays and enjoying the music of Shabbat with Marcy Yellin and Rabbi Ragozin. Rachel Jacobson will be returning to teach Hebrew in the mornings and Sheldon will be singing the songs of Havadallah on Monday mornings. The Explorers Club will be enjoying Movement Mondays with Lindsay O’Brien; Games, Games, Games with Marcy Furlong on Tuesdays. On Wednesdays, Debbie Leibowitz will be leading What’s Up Wednesdays. On Thursday afternoons, the whole school will be learning Spanish with Little Lingos and on Fridays we will all be kicking soccer balls around with Robin and his soccer stars. Our days will be full of the joy of learning from beginning to end.

We still have a little room left if you have not signed up for Preschool. We are opening another infant room in the fall and we are very close to being full.

Our hallways are filled with the sounds of children having fun enjoying the last few weeks of summer singing our songs to the sea.

Happy New Year,

Hillary

Dear Families,

We hope that everyone enjoyed a wonderful summer, and is ready to start the 2015-2016 school year. In addition to attending the CAJE (Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education) conference, we have spent the summer revamping the CJE curriculum for all grades. There are some wonderful and exciting changes in store!

The Hebrew program is now t’filah (prayer) based, with each grade having a specific set of prayers to study and learn.

For grades Pre-K, K and 1, the emphasis will be on learning the aleph-bet, prayers, holiday study, stories, music and crafts.

Grades 2-6 will be using the Sim Shalom Siddur for t’filah (prayer). The Siddur will be supplemented with additional Hebrew curriculum (such as Shalom Eevreet, Kol Yisrael and Hebrew games). They will also study Israel (grade 2), what it means to be a mensch (grade 3), life cycles (grade 4), and Jewish values (grade 5). Holiday programming will be on-going throughout the year.

In grade 6, students will learn with Cantor Elana (b’nai mitzvah boot camp) and will begin a new mitzvah project program under the supervision of the CJE co-directors. They will also be learning some history and working on the Shabbat morning service prayers.

Grade 7 is switching to a once/week model, with Rabbi Ragozin leading study (to include: Holocaust, what it means to become a responsible Jewish adult, Jewish values, just to name a few), b’nai mitzvah prep, history and pizza!

AND, Rachel Jacobson will be leading our Shabbat morning t’filah!

The first day of school is Tuesday, September 8, and our first Shabbat is Saturday, September 12. We look forward to seeing everyone!

Our best wishes to all our CJE families for a happy, healthy, and sweet New Year!

Stacie Nardizzi is a Certified Yoga Teacher training from Yoga Bodhi (Iyengar) 200-Hour Adult Certification under the guidance of Elizabeth O’Shea Sullivan. In addition to her adult certification, she is certified with YogaKids International (Hatha) 436+ Hour Child Specialist (ages 3 – 25) under the tutelage of Marsha Wenig. She loves working with all age levels and abilities in a multitude of environments.

Stacie has been on staff at Temple Emanu-El in Marblehead for the Religious School Sunday Arts & Judaism Program for the past 5 years. She’s looking forward to teaching K – 6 grades Yoga & Judaism classes for this coming academic year. Stacie teaches throughout the Boston area and North Shore, including Boston University, The Boston Ballet, North Shore Skating Club, EmPower Yoga, Lynch-Van Otterloo YMCA, The Nahant Community Center and Nahant Life Saving Station; plus several high schools and elementary schools in and around her community. She is the founder of her own yoga business, YogaKids North Shore, and is in the process of establishing EveryBODY Yoga.

Stacie teaches all types of students: beginning students through advanced, all-around athletes to a specific sport (skating, soccer, running, etc.), and all ages. Her objective in her classes is to share the true gift of yoga and show that every BODY can experience yoga in their own unique way. Stacie also teaches a beginning level of Mindfulness Meditation, which is easily accessible to beginners and advanced students, alike.

She was fortunate enough to pilot Yoga for Desk-Sitters at BU Questrom School of Business. She is extremely committed to exploring how yoga and meditation can be integrated into a corporate/work environment in a positive and effective way. Her objective is to bring a sense of balance with work and life outside of work.

Stacie’s love for integrating the spiritual aspect of Judaism and the physical asana of traditional yoga continues to be a wonderful marriage. Her ability to share the sacred art of yoga continues to bring happiness and peace to all that study with her.

We look forward to having Stacie continue our tradition of Yoga Minyan at 10:00 am during the weekly Shabbat Synaplex™.

YOU CAN SAVE MY LIFE

My name is Jeffrey Borenstein and I’m a Jewish man suffering from end-stage kidney failure.

My kidneys have completely shut down and I need dialysis treatments three days a week to survive.

Dialysis is not a cure, just a life support system. Although it’s keeping me alive, dialysis shortens life expectancy and decreases the chances of any type of long-term solution.

I need a kidney transplant

The only long-term solution for me is a kidney transplant, preferably from a living donor.

With a transplant, I can resume the active life I once shared with my family and friends, and resume my career as a college professor. Fortunately, I am still able to remain a fairly active member of my temple.

THIS IS A MAJOR MITZVAH

All I need is one compassionate, caring person who can save my life with a living donation.

Community Shabbat Café at noon

Attire is casual.
We practice radical hospitality.
Early Mystic Minyan - 8:45 am weekly

As it says in the Mishnah, the early mystics would gather together and sit for an hour before even attempting to formally engage in prayer. So too at CSH we offer the Early Mystic Minyan as an option for practitioners of meditation to come and sit as we begin to open up the space of our Sanctuary on Shabbat and of our hearts in the early quiet hours before the crowds arrive. It is a time to gather one’s self and one’s thoughts together through individual prayer without words, while Native American flute music is played.

Renewal Minyan - 8:45 - 9:50 am weekly

The Renewal Minyan is an attempted synthesis of keva – the traditional structure of tefillah (Jewish prayers) with kavanah – spiritual depth within the prayer itself. During the Renewal Minyan we are committed to traversing the Shabbat morning tefillot structure (Birkot HaShachar, P’seukei D’Zimrah, Shachrit), but not necessarily davening (praying) each and every prayer along the way. Our aim, again, is to strike a balance between breadth and depth, and within a one-hour period that is a fine balance, to be sure.

Traditional Minyan: Traditional Prayers
9:00 am weekly

The great thing about being Jewish is to be part of a tradition that is thousands of years old! But if you can’t read Hebrew, don’t know the words, or maybe can’t carry a tune, tradition can feel a little daunting. Come and join us in a safe, welcoming space to discover the beauty of traditional Jewish liturgy, prayer and song in a user-friendly format.

Chesed Committee

Nancy Sarles, Chair

Shalom,

Please join our Chesed Committee to assist our congregation members at times, both urgent and ongoing, with the generous energy of our congregation.

Chesed is our opportunity to give and receive a helping hand. Please volunteer for as little as a few hours a year to care for the needs of our members.

Chesed “Reach Out” program is to assist in emergency situations with meals, rides, child care, or Shiva. Chesed “Reach In” program is to address our members’ more ongoing needs such as a phone call, a visit, a meal, a ride to services, a new member buddy, new parent outreach, or simply being in touch and lending a helping hand.

I invite you to email me with your name, email address, and phone number where you can be called on to help.

As a Chesed Committee volunteer, there are no meetings. All communications are by email and phone, when needed.

Please call CSH if you have any needs we can help with.

Brotherhood

Brian Cohen, President

Those who know us, know well that our Brotherhood is a fun group. We like to gather, eat, enjoy each other’s company, and when we can, we work to improve our shul and our community. We are always looking for our next opportunity to have a good time and to strengthen the bonds amongst the men of our congregation.

Shalom!

The CSH Brotherhood wishes to all a Happy 5776!

We will once again be coordinating the ushers and greeters needed for the High Holy Days. This is a wonderful mitzvah and I strongly encourage any and all to participate. We ask for volunteers who are attending services, for one hour during the service, to carry out the CSH mission of Radical Hospitality. Ushers greet people, review tickets, hand out prayer books, and guide people to their seats. If you wish to help us, please send an email to cshbrotherhood@gmail.com or contact Marla Gay.

The Fall season is fast upon us and that means that we will be renewing our commitment to Monday Night Football. Throughout the season we will be hosting viewings and dinners. We will send out an email to our members a few nights before each game to see if we have enough interest to hold each event. If you wish to be included in these notifications, please send an email to cshbrotherhood@gmail.com.

Poker! -- Our CSH Brotherhood has formed allegiances with our neighboring shuls. We now coordinate our games with Temple Ner Tamid in Peabody and Temple B’nai Abraham in Beverly. Our next CSH poker night will be coming up in October; exact date to be announced. $25 will buy you dinner, poker chips, and an evening of great fun and prizes. There will be future articles about this. These are great events and our #1 fundraiser. Proceeds go to our Burt & Becky Shepard Scholarship Fund.

We are looking forward to a great year.
